PHOTOGRAPHY STUDIO TO OPEN IN DOWNTOWN EBENSBURG

Ebensburg – Claire Terese Photography will officially open its doors on Friday, December 4th in the McKenrick Building at 109 South Center Street.

Claire T. Houser of Ebensburg has opened the business. She is the daughter of Tim & Marianne Houser, a graduate of Holy Name Elementary School, and Bishop Carroll High School. Proud of her ever-growing hometown, she is excited about the opportunity to start her own business.

"Ebensburg has done a beautiful job with its Main Street and I'm so fortunate to be located in one of the downtown's most historical buildings," said Houser. "I'm happy to be a part of it and I'm grateful for all the support from my family, friends, and my hometown".

Ms. Houser is a 2009 graduate of Penn State Altoona. She holds an associate degree in Letters, Arts and Sciences with a concentration in visual arts. Claire has had an interest in photography since she was very young. She has received numerous photography awards from the Cambria County Fair. She has been employed as a photographer by The Picture People throughout college, as well as Lifetouch for a short time in 2008. Claire has served as the official photographer for Cresson Lake Playhouse since 2008.

Claire Terese Photography* will hold an open house this weekend with a ribbon cutting scheduled for 4:00 p.m. on Friday, December 4th. Office hours are 10:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. Monday-Thursday, 10:00 a.m. – 7:00 p.m. Saturday, and by appointment at the convenience of the customer on Friday.
